The Registers
OF THE Parish Church
OF Stokesley,

Co. YORK.

1571-1750.

TRANSCRIBED AND EDITED BY

THE REV. JOHN HAWELL, M.A., F.G.S.,

Vicar of Ingleby Greenhow.

J. WHITEHEAD AND SON, PRINTERS, LEEDS.

PREFACE.

THE REGISTERS belonging to the Parish Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, Stokesley, date from 1571, and the portion here printed is contained in the first five Books, and embraces all readable entries from the commencement down to the end of the year 1750.

Volume I is a parchment book measuring $10\frac{1}{2}$ by $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches, containing 52 leaves, and retaining a moiety of its original parchment cover. It contains monthly lists of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from January, 157 $\frac{1}{2}$, to April, 1645, the various events being usually recorded in the order in which they occurred. There is a leaf missing which contained the entries from April, 1625, to the following March, and another upon which were the entries from January, 162 $\frac{5}{8}$, to November, 1626. Down to the year 1603 this Register is evidently a transcript from the old paper Book. In that year it was ordered that "in every parish church and chapel within this realm shall be provided one parchment book at the charge of the parish, wherein shall be written the day and year of every christning, wedding, and burial, which have been in that parish since the time that the law was made in that behalf, so far as the ancient books thereof can be procured, but especially since the beginning of the reign of the late Queen." The transcriber appears to have found the original Register in pretty good condition. In the Ingleby Greenhow Register, under date 1591, there is the following note, showing that the copyist had his difficulties: "The olde booke was soe rent & torne that ther is not names exstant, or to be founde set downe in these yeares, & in some others."

Volume II is also of parchment and has 30 leaves. The original cover has disappeared, and it has been re-bound in paper-covered boards. It measures $12\frac{1}{2}$ by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. A section of probably eight leaves, containing the records from April, 1645, to November, 1653, is unfortunately missing from the commencement of this volume. In its present condition this Book contains monthly lists of records, in the order in which the events occurred, from November, 1653, to April, 1687. Down to the end of June, 1660, Births are registered instead of Baptisms.

Volume III, re-bound in paper-covered boards like the preceding one, is 13 inches in length by 6 inches in breadth, and carries on the monthly records of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, placed intermixedly together, from March, 1687, to April, 1723. Two pages at the end are occupied by a list of collections made in Stokesley Church in response to Briefs issued from 1700 to 1707.

Volume IV retains its original binding of sheep-covered boards, but the original clasps have almost entirely disappeared. It measures $11\frac{1}{2}$ by $7\frac{1}{4}$ inches, and has 52 parchment leaves, on which the records are carried on from April, 1723, to March, 1748 $\frac{7}{8}$. From 1725 onwards the Baptisms, Marriages and Burials are recorded in separate lists, but the several lists for each year are placed together. Inside the front cover are some memoranda respecting persons excommunicated, etc., and five pages at the end of the Volume are occupied by a Terrier of Church Property.

Volume V is a parchment book bound in sheep-covered boards, with 102 leaves, and measuring 15 by 9 inches. It contains the records of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from April, 1748, to November, 1792. The entries now printed occupy the first 11 pages.

These Registers are on the whole in a fairly good state of preservation. The transcribed portion at the beginning of the first Register is very well written, and easily readable. But at more than one period Stokesley was unfortunate in the choice of its scribe for making these entries, as might be inferred even from an examination of the erratic spellings in the printed Register. And not only have many entries been badly made originally, but some have been so far obliterated by subsequent usage of the Registers that the recovery of certain of the entries now printed has only been accomplished by patient study with lenses of different powers, while some few have baffled all attempts at decipherment.

With hardly an exception the records are all in English. In the earlier portion of the Registers the professions of the people to whom the entries relate are seldom mentioned; but from the later portion it is evident that hand-loom weaving was a special industry of the place, and many persons are described as being weavers, shagweavers, hecklers, shillers, etc., while besides the miller in charge of the corn-mill we have the millman, probably in charge of the bleach-mill.

The references to recusants, to cases of irregular baptism and burial—especially the night and midnight burials—and to the public flogging of vagrants are of considerable interest.

Some of the surnames, several of which are of local origin, evidence an interesting passage from one form to another, and the various attempts at phonetic spelling as time went on, help one to infer how the name was really pronounced by the people. Thus we gather that the name "Eure" was pronounced as a dissyllable. Some of the Christian names are worth noting. Meriiall, a very common name in old Cleveland Registers, had probably its origin in Muriel. So Constance becomes Custos or Custans, Bethuel Pethuel, and Beatrice Bettris. We have also Bethalina, Dallida, Dimack, Emmat, Keren-Happuch and Liconce, and as the names of females Mathew and Lucas, as well as the old English feminine form Julian. Only one or two double surnames occur, but one little girl was prophetically named "Jane alias Silence." Probably as she grew up the first name was found to be the more appropriate, and the latter accordingly dropped.

My sincerest thanks are due, and are hereby expressed, to Canon WRIGHT, the Rector of Stokesley, for having afforded me every possible facility for the transcription of the Registers.

It is well that I should point out that in the following pages "fo." signifies not a "leaf," but a "page." In making the transcript I wrote "p." for "pagina" or "page." When the first bit of proof was forwarded to me I found that for "p." had been printed "fo." Taking up one of the Registers already printed I found that "fo." had been used in this sense, and I therefore let it stand—a course which I subsequently regretted.

4- The Church Yard of Stokesley and also the Church Yard of Westerdale The Chapelry of Westerdale is an appendant to the Rectory of Stokesley and the Parson of Stokesley provides for the Cure thereof [fo. 101] and is proprietor of all the Tythes, Great Tythes and Small Tythes throughout Westerdale and South Basedale and of the Chancell of the said Chappell and of one dwelling house for the Curate consisting of three Bays of building and one little Garth on the backside thereof adjoyning to the Chappel Yard and of the Right of Turbary and free Common appurtenant to the said dwelling house and one little Barn of two Bays of Building and also one Oxgang of arable meadow and pasture ground with the Appurtenances Consisting of Severall Lands and flats lying dispersedly in the Townfields of Westerdale and known by their proper boundaries containing in the whole nine Acres or thereabouts

TYTHES

All manner of Tythes of what kind soever Great Tithes and small tithes throughout the Parish of Stokesley are due to the Parson of Stokesley only nor is there any modus or ancient Composition (that we know or have heard of) to quitt any lands or other Tythable things in the said parish of or from any Tithe save what is hereinafter mentioned and particularly Expresst, There is a modus of Six Shillings and Eight pence yearly to be paid at Easter for the Tyth Hay only, of the Tenants of little Busby in the said Parish, There is also a modus in Newby in the said parish of paying two pence for every Oxgang in Lieu of Tyth of Hay only, There is also a modus throughout the whole Parish of paying three halfpence for every renewing Cow and a penny for every unrenewing Cow in lieu of Tyth milk, There are Severall Corn Mills in the parish of Stokesley one ancient and others of late Erection what Tyth is due from them is disputed but not yet determined So likewise of Dove Coates several houses in the Township of Newby and the Lands thereunto belonging are reputed to be of the parish of Seamer nevertheless the parson of Stokesley of right receives and for time Immemorial hath received all the Tyths of Corn and Grain and of all Seeds reaped in [fo. 100] the whole Lordship of Newby tho' arising within the Parish of Seamer, In Thorrowby in the parish of Stokesley the Easter Offerings The Tyth Hens and Mortuaries The Surplice fees the Tyth of Hay and Herbage of Unprofitable Cattle belong to the Parson of Stokesley the other Tyths to the Impropiator of Rudby—

* In the North Riding Records there is mention of "A close eleven acres called the Peeve, or Maine Crooke, whereof the Rector doth mow one acre or thereabouts in lieu of tythe." Canon Atkinson, the editor, surmises that the word "Peeve" must be greatly corrupted.

As to the times and manner of Tything the Custom of the place is as here follows—Viz^t—at Easter, Offerings are then paid by every householder for the whole family, that is twopence for every one of age to receive the Communion according to the Canon. The Tyth of wooll is paid at Shearday The Tyth of Lambs at Peter's day. The Tyth of Calves at Martinmas. The Tyth of Piggs at three weeks old, The Tyth of Geese Turkys and Ducks at Michaelmass. A Tyth or Smoaklien is to be paid at Christmass by every householder except Such as receive Alms of the Parish The Tyth of Bees is paid by the tenth part of honey and Wax and one penny is paid for every new Swarm under five and if there be five the Parson has half the value of a Swarm and if there be Six Swarms or more in one year the Parson hath a Tyth Swarm. The Tyth of all roots and Seeds and fruits of Trees in Orchards or elsewhere are paid in their proper kinds when Gathered The Tythe of Hemp and flax are paid by the tenth Boot or Sheaf when pulled or drawn. The Tyth of Rapeseed is paid by the tenth measure the Grower deducting reasonably for the Charge of Threshing. The Tyth of Corn be it Wheat Rye Barley Pease Beans or Oates is in harvest by Setting forth every tenth Stook or Rick but where the quantity is so small as not to yield a Tyth Stook or Rick the Tyth must be sett forth by the tenth Sheaf bound up. The Tything of Hay is by the tenth Haycock when it is made into Dry Hay and equall Cocks In the Tything of Calves and Lambs if the Parishioner have under five Calves or Lambs he shall pay a penny for every Calf or Lamb If he have five Calves or Lambs he [fo. 99] shall set an equall price or value upon the whole Calf or Lamb, and the Parson may Chuse whether he will take half the Value or take the Calf or Lamb and pay half the Value. If there be more than five Calves or Lambs and under Ten the Parson shall have one, allowing a penny for every Calf or Lamb that is wanting of ten The same Tyth is to be paid for foals as for Calves and in like manner In the Tything of Wooll if the Parishioner have under five fleeces he pays a half penny for every fleece If he have five fleeces the Parson must have half a fleece If he have more than five and under Ten the Parson must have a whole fleece allowing a half penny for every one that is so wanting of Ten If the Parishioner have Ten or more fleeces or Lambs or Calfs or Piggs or Geese or Turkys or Ducks or Swarms of Bees he may Chuse two in the first place and then the Parson Chuses his Tyth, but if he have under Ten he must Chuse but one before the Parson. Due Notice is always to be given to the Parson or his Deputy to see that the Tyth in every kind be duely sett forth before the Parishioner carry any part away. Mortuaries are paid according to the Statute Surplice fees are as follows Viz^t—A Marriage with License Ten Shillings, with Banns published two Shillings A Churching seven pence : A buriall fourteen pence.
